

10. For the environment of a typical walking shoe that extends directional longitudinally along a central upright-plane and having a horizontal lower-base extending directional longitudinally from a rear-end thereof, the improvement comprising: relegatively attachably confined to the rear-end of the walking shoe lower-base and extending loftily thereabove visual warning means comprising: at least one lofty and horizontally vibratory upright column and wherein each such column topically carries a visually prominent bright ornamental feature.

Claim 2(Amended). The [aesthetically] improved walking shoe of Claim 10 wherein the at least one topically carried ornamental feature possesses a luminescent characteristic and wherein each such column is [helical] loftily structurally helically provided throughout.

In Claim 3, line-2, please change "undrlyingly" to -- underlyingly -- .

In Claim 4, at the end of line-1, please delete --carried -- .

In Claim 6, at line-3, please substitute -- the rear-end -- for "a rearward portion" .

In Claim 8, at line-3, please substute -- the rear-end -- for "a rearward portion".

In Claim 9, at line-3, please delete -- non-natural electrical power-- and substitute "chemical storage-battery".

Please cancel Claim 1, without prejudice.